GRADUATE STUDENT APPRECIATION WEEK

APRIL 2024

THRIVING IN YOUR GRADUATE PROGRAM

APR
4

At the Kortschak Center for Learning and Creativity we recognize the demands that today's graduate students are facing. This workshop is designed to help graduate students succeed academically while supporting their overall health and wellness.

Join us for an engaging workshop designed to increase your efficiency and overall enjoyment of the graduate school experience here at USC. Topics include: academic skill building, time management, stress management, and self-care!
